STORM SUFFERERS.

More About the Cyclone in Pennsylvania.

The Number of the Dead at Reading Between Thirty and Forty.

Nineteen Bodies Taken from the Pittsburgh Ruins So Far.

Great Damage and Some Loss of Life Reported in Other Places in the Path of the Destroyer—Many Sad Scenes Witnessed Among the Ruins.

By Telegraph to The Times.

READING (Pa.), Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] There is mourning and sorrow in many households in Reading today. The pall of death hangs over the city. Fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends are grief-stricken over the wreck of last night. Over one hundred spirits are hushed forever in death as the result of the wreck and ruin wrought in this city by the storm. The cyclone left the entire city in darkness, relieved subsequently by the electric lights and huge bonfires, which shed a lurid glare on the scene of death. All night long brave and willing hands assisted in the work of rescue. The disaster is fully as bad as reported last night. The list of fatal cases will fully reach 100, and may be more. Hospitals and undertakers' establishments are filled with the victims. The physicians are all busy. Many private houses have been opened for the accommodation of the injured. This morning everything was directly in contrast with the fury of last night. All was again bright and glorious in the heavens, as though mocking the work of last night. The Polish church disaster of several months ago was one of the most horrible accidents that has startled this community, but the loss of life by that fatal cave-in sinks into comparative insignificance when placed in parallel with the awful visitation of last evening.

The work of rescue is greatly retarded from the singular manner in which the silk mill collapsed. It did not fall, but was bodily crushed down, turning in upon itself in one mass. Not a vestige of the walls remain standing above the stone foundation. The rafters and timbers of the flooring project in all directions. As the building was steam heated the ruins did not take fire. Otherwise not one of the unfortunates could possibly have escaped death in its most appalling form.

WHAT A WOMAN SAW.

The only eye-witness to the disaster, so far as known, was Mrs. Gemmill, residing near the mill. "About 20 minutes of 6 o'clock," said she to the Associated Press reporter, "I heard an awful crash. Thinking it was a new house being put up alongside of us, I ran to the front door. A great cloud of dust hung over the silk mill, and I could hear the crashing of timbers and the roar of falling walls. Next moment I saw the mill a great heap of ruins, from the midst of which came such awful moaning and groaning and terrible cries as I never want to hear again. Not a soul did I see come out of the mill, and it seemed many minutes to me before anybody came to the spot."

Teams of every description, omnibuses, funeral coaches, fire wagons, hospital vans and private vehicles were pressed into the service, and were running rapidly to and from the scene of the disaster all night, bearing bodies of the wounded, dying and dead to their homes or the hospital. From the statement of some of those who escaped from the building it appears to have gone down in an instant. There was a loud crash of breaking timber, and the persons in the mill all rushed to the main doors. A good many succeeded in getting out. Four girls saved themselves by jumping from the second story windows. The first rumbling noise was followed instantly by the falling of the building, the upper stories going first with their human load. Had it not been for the fact that but few of the hands were on the third and fourth floors at the time, scarcely a life would have been saved.

AN APPEAL FOR AID.

Mayor Kenney at 2 o'clock this morning issued the following proclamation: "I hereby earnestly appeal to professional, business and other citizens who may be able to favorably respond, to meet at the courthouse this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, to devise ways and means to aid the injured and assist the families of those who perished last night in the fall of the silk mill and at the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad paint-shop. The fearful cyclone that struck this city at 5:30 last evening has brought sorrow and want to many of our people, who are in such circumstances as to be unable to meet the emergency, and the occasion calls loudly for immediate action. Quick to respond to others in distress, do not fail to do speedy justice to our own grief-stricken people."

George Grimshaw, one of the proprietors of the mill, who barely escaped with his life, having received several severe bruises, stated there were about 275 persons, principally girls and boys, in the establishment at the time of the occurrence. Up to 8 o'clock this morning a large majority of the victims were still in the ruins.

CORRECTED LIST OF VICTIMS.

The following is the list of casualties, corr

ARTHUR WEYERMAN.

THE NOTORIOUS MURDER CASE COMES TO A CLOSE.

The Murderer Tells His Story—He Denies That He Told the Officers Certain Things—The Case Goes to the Jury Early in the Evening and They Are Locked Up for the Night.

The defendant in the Weyerman murder trial, Arthur Weyerman, was again placed on the stand in Department No. 1 of the Superior Court, before Judge Clark, yesterday morning, and his cross-examination was resumed. He testified: I did not see the pistol when it was discharged, and did not take the officers to the church and tell them the weapon might be in the yard. I stated to Chief Cuddy and Van Luven on August 21st that I had not seen Ben from the time he left me and my father until after he was shot. That statement was false. I did not state to Metzler and Cuddy at another time that Ben had shot himself. On August 25th I did not state to Officer McCarthy that I was too drunk at the time of the shooting to know anything about it.

Re-direct: My brother's complexion was a shade darker than mine. He spoke quite as good English as myself. He was not 21 years of age when he died.

Officer McCarthy was recalled by the defense, and testified to taking the deceased's dying declaration. The wounded man said it was a family quarrel, and if his brother had shot him he would not prosecute him. The statement was here read by the witness. In it the dying man said that he pulled the pistol out of his brother's hip pocket and began to flourish it. The defendant grabbed for it, and in the struggle it was discharged. Ben said he did not know who pulled the trigger.

MRS. WEYERMAN,

the mother of the deceased, was recalled by the defense, who wished to prove that Mrs. Weyerman had taken from the trunk of her deceased son love letters written by a young lady in Texas to whom he was engaged to marry. The defense said that the reason the deceased made the statement upon his deathbed that he did not care to live was due to the fact that the Texas lady had discarded him. That deceased had taken to drink and was much demoralized in consequence.

The prosecution objected to the introduction of the letters. The theory of the defense had been accidental shooting and not suicide. The Court would not allow the letters to go in evidence.

The defense then stated that it had closed its case.

The prosecution placed Officer Marsh and P. M. Darcy on the stand in rebuttal. Their evidence was not important, and the prosecution announced that it rested also.

Court was then adjourned till the afternoon.

Afternoon Session.

Assistant District Attorney Hardesty made the opening argument for the prosecution when the trial was resumed at 1:30 o'clock. He said: The medical evidence in this case is undisputed that death was caused by a gunshot wound. The question is, who fired the shot? The evidence depended on for a conviction is entirely circumstantial. No doubt could exist that the defendant was present when the deceased was shot. It was in positive proof that the defendant had left the saloon in company with the deceased, and had walked up the hill behind him. Everything was positive so far. The only disputed facts are the statements made by the defendant to the police. Again, the defendant had made no less than four different statements about the shooting.

ALL CONTRADICTORY.

First he denied having a pistol or knowing anything about the shooting. Then he said Benny came up and shot himself with a pistol, on Fort and Temple streets. Then, again, that Benny took a pistol out of his (the defendant's) pocket, and, in a struggle, the pistol went off and the deceased was shot. And, lastly, he admitted to Officer Marsh that he knew Benny had been shot while he was with him, and said: "My God! Why did I do it?" No jury could believe, after hearing the evidence, that all the police officers were in a conspiracy to hang the defendant. Why did the defendant lie so? There was no need for an innocent man to lie. The only point the prosecution was at fault in was in producing the pistol that the defendant at last admitted having had in his possession.

Then the speaker contrasted the testimony of Phillis, who swore he heard two men disputing on the corner of Fort and Temple streets, and that the words "G—d d—n you" had been used, and that of the defendant, as to the shooting. If Phillis's statement was true, the defendant's, about his going away after the deceased was shot, was certainly false. Defendant had been all through. If the shooting of the deceased occurred as the defendant claimed it did, there was nothing wrong in it, and if he had simply stated the circumstances as they happened, he would not have had any trouble in clearing himself on the ground that it was an accident. Had the deceased not been influenced by his family, he would have made far different statements.

The speaker then reviewed at length the alleged discrepancies between the dying statements of the deceased and the conditions under which they were drawn up. The only reasonable explanation of the shooting was that the men quarreled and that, influenced with liquor, the defendant shot the deceased. Then on the way home in the hack the defendant induced the deceased to suppress the truth and state that it was a stranger who did the shooting. Later on when the defendant's lies got so tangled up, the deceased was induced to make other statements as to a struggle with his brother. The luckiest man in the United States, in the speaker's estimation, was Phillis. There was really nothing to prevent the two brothers accusing him of the murder, and he most probably would have been convicted.

THE COURSE OF THE BULLET.

The course of pistol bullets and the impossibility of the deceased having been able to shoot himself in such a manner as caused his death was very lucidly portrayed.

It was disgraceful to extort such false statements from a dying man and send the deceased to his Maker with a lie on his lips. No dependence ought to be placed in the testimony of the defendant: he was proven a liar from beginning to last on the stand, and had himself proven his own guilt.

Mr. Hardesty made a very able speech, and made his points distinctly and easily.

Thomas Routledge,

FOR THE DEFENSE,

replied to the prosecution's statements. He said that the defendant is by law presumed to be innocent until proven guilty, and every point against him must be proven fully to obtain a conviction. Against the circumstantial evidence relied on by the prosecution for a conviction, the defense had presented facts which distinctly cleared him. The speaker then took up the dying statements of the deceased, and contended that they were all true, taking the condition of the deceased into consideration. Besides, the first statement was made in the presence, and at the instance of, Detective Metzler, who asked questions and just wrote down the answers. The prosecution seemed to desire the conviction of the defendant because he told contradictory and differing stories after his brother's death. Against that there are that the defendant did not shoot him. The police seem to have hounded the defendant into making different statements. Could a slight quarrel two months before the shooting cause one brother to murder another. Not one expression inculpating the defendant has been shown to have been uttered by the deceased. There was absolutely not the slightest motive for the defendant killing the deceased. No motive has been shown for the crime by the prosecution. Webber's evidence, as to Arthur threatening to kill his brother, should be disregarded, as his animus against defendant was amply shown. His statement to the defense, that he was to get money for his testimony, showed his true value.

Who was Metzler that the defendant should tell him everything about the case? Metzler was simply wild at the defendant for sending him off on a false scent, and determined to convict him. In fact, the Smith story was Metzler's own theory. The defendant's were worried out of him by the police when he was in a half-demented state at the death of his brother. No circumstantial evidence could convict a defendant when the deceased explicitly states that the accused did not commit the crime, and stated so in his dying statement. The killing of the deceased was entirely accidental.

The prosecution in its

stated that circumstantial evidence is frequently the very best evidence. Denied that there was any conspiracy to convict the defendant. Wimmer, nor any witness, had had any inducement held out to them to testify against the defendant. Denied that Metzler intimidated deceased to make his first dying statement. The defendant had not contradicted Wimmer's statement that the defendant had threatened his brother's life. Fratricides are not infrequent; the first case dates back to all time, and is recorded in the Bible. The suicide theory had been entirely exploded by the admission of the defense that the shooting was accidental. By actual demonstration to the jury the counsel proved that it would have been impossible for the deceased to have shot himself without placing the muzzle of the pistol close up against the clothing, and so producing such powder-burns that would have burned the flesh.

After a lengthy charge by the Court, the case went to the jury at 5:20 o'clock.

At 11:30 last night the jury had not agreed upon a verdict. The ballots were reported then as standing eight for acquittal and four for manslaughter.

A Chinese Ruction.

Yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock a telephone message was received at the police station, saying that a big fight was in progress among a gang of Chinese highbinders, back of the Club Theater, over a woman, and asking that the patrol wagon be sent at once. When the wagon reached the place on Sanchez street it was found that the parties had already been arrested, and were on their way to the station. The riot turned out to be merely a disagreement between a Chinaman and the woman with whom he has been living, who is a half-breed Chinese and Peruvian, who has figured in police circles frequently before. The woman said the man had threatened to stab her, and, as she was not ready to die, she had called for help. The man was taken before Justice Lockwood, and committed to the County Jail, to await trial on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. When searched a big knife was found in his possession. The woman was released.

FATAL RUNAWAY.

A MAN THROWN FORTY FEET FROM HIS WAGON.

The Unfortunate Slides on His Head Six Feet and Is Picked Up In an Unconscious Condition—A Horrible Sight—In a Dying Condition.

A probably fatal accident occurred on Second street yesterday afternoon, caused by a runaway team. Shortly after 1 o'clock, as a two-horse dirt wagon was coming down the Second-street hill, the horses became unmanageable at the corner of Olive and Second streets, and started on a dead run down the hill. The driver tried to stop them, but did not succeed, and when about 100 feet from Fort street the wagon tongue struck the ground, stopping the wagon, causing the horses to turn a somersault, and throwing the driver ten or fifteen feet into the air, and a distance of forty feet from the wagon. The man came down on his head and shoulders with terrific force, slipping five or six feet before he finally stopped, bleeding and unconscious, near the curb. The street was filled with people, and in a few minutes a large crowd gathered about the prostrate man, who was breathing heavily and in an apparently dying condition. Dr. Bicknell, who was returning from dinner, was on the spot in a few minutes, and made a hasty examination, after which the injured man was removed to the police station and Dr. McCarthy summoned. At the station, a few minutes after the arrival of the physicians, the man revived sufficiently to say that his name was Stevens, but in a few seconds he became unconscious again. Blood was oozing from his ears and nose, and he began vomiting blood, which continued at intervals until he was placed under the influence of morphine. Both Drs. Bicknell and McCarthy were of the opinion that the injuries were of the most dangerous character, but said that there was some slight hope of recovery.

It was afterwards learned from D. F. Donegan, the contractor, who came in to see the man, that his name was Stevens and that he was in his employ, having gone to work yesterday morning. He took the team at noon, and was coming down from dinner to go work when the accident occurred. He said that Stevens had told him that he was an experienced teamster, and as he considered the horses very gentle he could not understand how they came to run away unless it was because the driver had failed to put on his brake coming down the heavy grade. He knew nothing about where he lived, or, in fact, anything beyond the name, as the man had only commenced work for him a few hours before the accident.

Stevens is a man 45 to 50 years of age, with dark hair and eyes, somewhat above the average in height and wearing a full beard. He was dressed as a laborer and wore no coat. No one called at the station up to 8 o'clock last night to inquire after him, and as no one seemed to know anything about him it was impossible to learn whether he had any family in the city or not. He was still unconscious at 8 o'clock last night, and had not spoken a word with the exception of giving his name. Early in the afternoon he appeared much worse, and was supposed to be in a dying condition.

SUPERVISORS.

Shall the County Treasurer Have Deputies?

The board was in regular session yesterday.

A transfer of $5000 was made from the unapplied funds to the hospital fund temporarily.

The Auditor was instructed to apportion $400,000 at once to the several funds.

A. W. Hutton was allowed to lease the room recently occupied by him as a courtroom with the approval of Mr. Cohen, but subsequently the action was rescinded and the matter left open to be considered today.

County Treasurer Banbury applied for two deputies.

Subsequently I. W. Hellman appeared before the board, and said that the work of the County Treasurer could be performed by that officer if he would devote two hours a day to it, and if the Supervisors allowed him two deputies, he (Mr. Hellman) would get out an injunction.

In the bridge matter at El Monte, the claim of T. W. Ferguson against the contract was referred to the District Attorney for his opinion.

Warrant No. 6526 was ordered destroyed.

The remainder of the session was occupied in making up the lists for the grand juries.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

Detective Lawson Suffers a Painful Wound.

Detective A. B. Lawson, of Lawson's Detective Agency, accidentally shot himself last night, inflicting a painful wound. About 8 o'clock, as Mr. Lawson was sitting at his desk, in his office, he opened the drawer to get his revolver, preparatory to going out, and in taking the weapon out, it was accidentally discharged, the ball passing through his body just below the shoulder blade, on the left side. The pistol was an improved double action Colt, 45-caliber, and it is almost a miracle that a fatal wound was not inflicted. Medical aid was at once summoned, and Drs. Dozier and Dodge responded. An examination showed that no serious damage had been done, and if nothing goes wrong, Mr. Lawson will be out again in a week or two. The news of the affair spread rapidly, and the report was soon in circulation that the detective had got into a difficulty, and been shot, while another rumor was that he had attempted to commit suicide. The whole thing, however, was purely accidental.

DISAPPOINTED DEPUTIES.

The Sudden Departure of Ex-Constable Smith.

There was considerable kicking among the deputies of Ex-Constable Ed R. Smith over not getting their money for the last month they worked. It was said that Mr. Smith told the men to come around at 3 o'clock and they would be paid, but that when they put in an appearance they were told that he had gone east.

Constable Fred Smith, when asked about the matter, said that his brother, who was going into the horse business, had been telegraphed that certain stock he wanted to buy was to be placed on sale, and he had taken the first train for the East, and did not have a chance to straighten up his affairs. He will be absent, he said, only about three weeks, but would probably telegraph him what to do in the meantime.

The deputies are considerably put out at not getting their money, and while they say that they have no fears about getting all that is coming to them, the disappointment has caused them great inconvenience.

Breach of Promise Suit.

Suit has been commenced by Theresa Ackerman against Jacob Hommel to recover $50,000 for breach of promise to marry. Hommel is a rancher, having a valuable farm near the terminus of the Temple-street line, and is said to be quite wealthy. The complainant was employed by him as a domestic. She alleges that on June 1, 1887, in this city, the defendant promised to marry her, and, though she has always been ready and willing to have the knot tied, he refuses to fulfill his share of the contract and keep his promise. Hommel is still unmarried.

Want Him Released.

United States Marshal Risley has received a petition for signature by him and the other United States Court officials praying for the release of John Smith, convicted of selling liquor to Indians and sentenced to serve two years in the San Bernardino County Jail, and to pay a fine of $300. This is Smith's second offense. The petition sets forth that Smith is in ill health, and bears the certificate of Richard Gird, foreman of the Grand Jury, that the San Bernardino Jail is a miserable hole, unfit for the imprisonment of human beings. When signed, the petition is to be forwarded to the President.

JOHN HALL.

A Complaint Sworn Out Against Him for Perjury.

John Hall, one of the most prominent orchardists of Los Angeles, is in trouble with Uncle Sam, and unless he can give a good account of himself he is liable to be seriously damaged in the contest which will take place within a few days.

Day before yesterday Rodolfo Martinez appeared before the United States Commissioner and stated that he wished to have Mr. Hall arrested on a charge of perjury. District Attorney George Denis was consulted and the following complaint was drawn up and filed:

"United States of America, Southern District of California, ss.: Be it remembered that on this 9th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, before me, William M. Van Dyke, a Commissioner duly appointed by the Circuit Court of the United States of America for the Southern District of California, to take acknowledgments of bail and affidavits, and also to take depositions of witnesses in civil causes depending in the courts of the United States, etc., pursuant to the acts of Congress in that behalf, personally appeared Rodolfo Martinez, who, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that John Hall, heretofore, to wit, on the 28th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and within the jurisdiction of the United States aforesaid, and of this honorable court, to wit, at Los Angeles, California, having heretofore applied to enter under the timber culture act of June 14, 1878, the N½ of the N¼ of section 18, township 8 north, range 16 west, and having then and there taken an oath before H. W. Patton, the duly appointed, qualified and acting Register of the United States Land Office for the Los Angeles land district, and as such being then and there a person having competent authority to administer said oath, that a certain affidavit known and designated as timber culture affidavit, which said affidavit was requested to be made by said applicant under the provisions of said act and which was then and there subscribed by said John Hall was true, and then and there knowingly, willfully and corruptly and contrary to said oath subscribe certain material matters in said affidavit contained which he, said Hall, did not believe to be true, but knew to be false, to-wit: 'I have made personal examination of said land (meaning the section above mentioned) and from my personal knowledge of the same state that the section of land specified in my said application is composed exclusively of plain lands or other lands devoid of timber,' whereas in truth and in fact said section of land was not composed exclusively by or at all of prairie lands or other lands devoid of timber, but was covered with timber, to-wit, sycamore, willow and cottonwood trees, contrary to the form of the statutes of the United States in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said United States.

"RODOLFO MARTINEZ.

"Sworn to and subscribed this 9th day of January, A. D. 1889, before me,

"WILLIAM M. VAN DYKE,

"United States Commissioner."

Mr. Hall came here from the East about eight years ago, and has built some of the finest structures in the city. He drew plans for the County Jail, which were accepted, but some irregular matters cropping up, his plans were rejected, and his engagement with the county broken off.

A warrant was issued for his arrest day before yesterday, and placed in the hands of a deputy United States marshal, but for some reason he had not been arrested up to a late hour yesterday afternoon, although he lives on a prominent street and can be found without trouble.

Section 5392 of the United States Revised Statutes fixes the punishment at not to exceed five years' imprisonment and $2000 fine.

A RECEIVING HOSPITAL.

The Cruel Manner in Which Unfortunates Are Treated.

THE TIMES has many times in the past called the attention of the City Council to the fact that there is no receiving hospital in this city. It is doubtful whether there is a city in the United States with a population of 20,000 that is without a receiving hospital near the heart of town, where people who are suddenly injured may be taken for immediate treatment. Yesterday gave a good illustration of the lack of such an institution, when a man received probably fatal injuries in a street accident. There was no place to take him except the police station, where there are no accommodations for the treatment of the wounded. Hardly a week goes by that a similar case is not held up before the City Council, and yet it goes on in this dreamy way and pay no attention to the needs of the city in this direction. A room could soon be fitted up at the police station, where patients could be properly treated and made ready for their ride to the County Hospital or their homes. It is criminal to drag a wounded man into the police station, as now done, and throw him on the hard boards in the drunks' cell, and yet the Council has never even attempted to establish a receiving hospital.

"JUST LIKE ST. PAUL."

The Chestnut Bell to Be Rung on a Councilman.

A good story was in circulation yesterday about one of the new members of the Council. The gentleman in question was formerly a resident of St. Paul, and has a very high opinion of that city, which he regards as a model for all creation, barring the climate, and he would like to have Los Angeles pattern as nearly as possible after it. The gentleman also has very pronounced views, and it is said that he does not like the way in which many things are done here. For instance, he is quoted as remarking to another St. Paul gentleman residing here that he was very sorry that he was not engaged in building sewers, as he could probably give him a job constructing the outfall to the sea, while to another he remarked that there was no one in Los Angeles who understood the grading of streets, and he thought of writing back to St. Paul and bringing out a well-known contractor from that city to do the work. Of course it is all right, but even too much of St. Paul becomes a chestnut.

East Side Board of Trade.

The East Los Angeles Board of Trade had an election of officers Wednesday evening, with the following result: President, James Hawley; vice-presidents, Sherman Page D. Gilbert Dexter, E. M. Hamilton; secretary, F. R. Willis; executive committee, Dr. Newton, J. W. Arnold, Dr. T. Michaels, G. C. Keyes, Sherman Smith, N. S. Embody, L. H. Gibbs.

Drunk Rollers Arrested.

Last night Detective McCarthy arrested a couple of tough citizens who gave the names of John Morris and Thomas White, who were locked up on a charge of robbery. They "rolled" a drunk Wednesday night, who yesterday swore out a warrant for heir arrest. They were captured on Main street.

Who Is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink, wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

IN TROUBLE.

WOMEN WHO WAITED ON THE CHIEF YESTERDAY.

A Young Girl with a Story of Love and Betrayal—A Lady Who Wanted the Services of a Savage-looking Officer.

Among the visitors at the police station yesterday was a pretty, modest-looking girl, aged about 16 years, who appeared to be very anxious to see the Chief. That gentleman was not in at the time, and she said that she would wait for him, and when he came, she was invited into his office, where she told her story, which was the old one of a woman's trust betrayed. She said she was but 16 years of age, and came out to Los Angeles from St. Louis some months ago to stay with her aunt. She had been here but a short time, when she met a young man, and became engaged to him. Under promise of marriage, he seduced her, and when she found that she was enciente, she consulted a prominent physician, who gave her some medicine. A portion of this she had taken, and the remainder she handed to the Chief. The young man who had ruined her, when she informed him of her condition, and asked him to fulfill his promise and save her from disgrace, repudiated her, saying that he was not in the marrying business. She did not know what to do, as her father would be out here in a few weeks, and he would be compelled to learn of her downfall. All she wanted was for the man to keep his promise and marry her, even if he lived with her but a day, which would save her good name, and she could then go back to her people in St. Louis and lead a new life. She did not know what to do, but she wanted the Chief to use his authority and see if her lover could not be compelled to do her justice.

The girl gave the names and addresses of the physician and the young man, and Detective McCarthy was given the medicine and told to work up the case, and if there was any way by which the parties could be brought to justice to adopt it. The physician was found, and had no difficulty in showing that there was no criminal intent on his part, as the girl had consulted him professionally, and he had advised her what to do, at the same time giving her a prescription, which was harmless, so far as any criminal operation was concerned. The young man was also looked up, and he flatly denied that he had ever promised to marry the girl, but produced a letter from her in which she acknowledged that she had been criminally intimate with another man, but asking his forgiveness and promising to be true to him. The girl afterward acknowledged that this was true, and as there is no law to cover the case from a criminal standpoint further investigation was stopped and the girl was told that her only redress was by civil suit for damages. As the young man is without means this, of course, would amount to nothing. It is possible, however, that when the father of the girl arrives he will take some steps in the matter.

There were two other visitors of the feminine persuasion. The first was a young woman who wanted an old woman stopped from talking about her. The woman, she said, lived near her, and made life a burden by abusing her whenever she saw her, and circulating the most scandalous stories concerning her. She was sent upstairs to get a warrant for defamation of character.

The second was a nice old lady who wanted an officer sent with her to persuade her daughter to return home. She said the girl had left her home and gone to live with her cousin, and she wanted her to come back. She did not want the girl arrested or anything said about the affair in the papers, but only wanted her frightened by seeing an officer, and if Capt. Harris would kindly send the biggest and fiercest looking policeman he had with her, she thought she could succeed. The Captain said that, while there was no law by which the officer could arrest the girl, he would send an officer, and calling up Mounted Officer James Mackel, told him to accompany the lady, which he did. The result of the the mission had not been learned up to a late hour last evening.

TIE AND TRACK.

Will the Southern Pacific Use Its Franchise?

There was nothing new in railroad circles yesterday. Passenger business is improving and is better now than it has been for some time.

The right of way to the Wolfskill depot has not yet been settled, although the Mayor has signed the franchise giving the Southern Pacific Company what they, for the reason that the company does not wish to do anything, if they can help it, against the interests of the property-holders along the route.

A prominent official was seen at the San Fernando-street depot yesterday by a TIMES reporter, and on being questioned about the matter he said:

"We will do the proper thing by the people. Had it not been for the acts of certain persons we should not have been so determined in our efforts to get the right of way. No, we will not use it, for the reason that the citizens are bitterly opposed to it and the other route is equally as good."

The excitement over the Utah, Salt Lake and Los Angeles road has about died out. The Union Pacific people have not yet shown up, but the local managers of the scheme look smiling and happy, and when questioned about the matter they put on a wise cast of contenance and refuse to talk.

Mr. Upham, the alleged agent of the Union Pacific Company, still keeps himself in the background, but his friends claim that he knows what he is about, and the public will have to wait until the proper time comes before he will give the thing away.

Col. Williamson Dunn of the Santa Fé system was seen yesterday by a TIMES reporter and questioned about the orange crop. Col. Dunn has just returned from a trip through the orange districts.

"The crop this year," said Col. Dunn, "is much larger than it has ever been before, and I think the fruit is of a better quality. The past season could not have been more favorable, and I think orange-growers will feel greatly encouraged to branch out and extend their orange groves as rapidly as possible."

W. A. Bissell, general freight and passenger agent for the Atlantic and Pacific, is in the city on his way south. He will be met here today by A. A. Goddis, general superintendent of the Atlantic and Pacific, who will accompany him south.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Board of Trade Declares Itself on Two Propositions.

The following resolutions were passed by the Board of Trade on the 7th inst.:

WHEREAS, the advantage of cheap capital is recognized, and the development of any country depends upon obtaining cheap capital; and

WHEREAS, the present mortgage tax law of this State imposes an annoyance on the lender and a burdensome and unnecessary rate of interest on the borrower, and has failed to produce any of the results intended to be accomplished by its enactment; therefore be it

Resolved, that it is the sense of the Los Angeles Board of Trade that the Constitution of the State of California should be so amended as to abolish said mortgage tax.

Resolved, that our Representatives in the General Assembly of the State of California be urgently requested to do all in their power to bring about the abolishment of said mortgage tax.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be mailed to each of the members of the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California from the county of Los Angeles.

Another meeting was held on the 8th, and the following business was transacted:

Resolved, that this Board of Trade heartily indorses the action of the Chamber of Commerce in their efforts to establish a beet-sugar refinery in Los Angeles county, and we guarantee our hearty coöperation and assistance in the matter.

Resolved, that in the establishment of manufactories in our county is the key to our continued prosperity, and we pledge ourselves to support and assist in all such matters.

Resolved, that a committee of three be appointed from this Board of Trade to confer with the Chamber of Commerce and assist them in this matter.

Hon. L. J. Rose, S. B. Lewis and J. V. Wachtel were appointed as such committee.

At the request of John F. Humphreys of the City Council, the following committee has been appointed from the Board of Trade, to appear before the Council on Wednesday, the 16th inst., to give their views as to the establishment of a sewer system, viz: Eugene Germain, president; Hon. L. J. Rose, Frederick Lambourn, J. M. Griffith and J. V. Wachtel.

A Really Magnificent Issue.

[Santa Barbara Independent.]

THE TIMES of Los Angeles has a really magnificent New Year's issue, their "Annual Trade Number." It bears internal evidence of the solid work bestowed upon it, and we hope will be duly appreciated by the Angelefios. The notice given to Santa Barbara is very pretty and accurate. Other counties of the great and growing regions of Southern California receive likewise due tribute. It makes no pretensions to literary style, but is, nevertheless, a valuable addition to the history of the southern counties for the year of grace, 1888.

"A Thorough Piece of Work."

[Oakland Tribune.]

The Annual Trade Number of the LOS ANGELES TIMES is a very thorough piece of work, containing a complete showing of the marvelous commercial and industrial growth of that favored country. The matter is presented in readable shape, and the number contains several contributions signed by names well known in the literary world.

"Takes the Lead."

[San Diego Sun.]

Proud as she is of her wonderful development, Southern California will be unable to suppress a surprised feeling of importance and satisfaction upon turning over the leaves of the Annual Trade Number for this section which the LOS ANGELES TIMES supplies. The past, present and future of this young empire are reviewed dispassionately and in a most entertaining manner. As a feat of enterprise, THE TIMES Annual takes the lead.

A CALIFORNIA SENSATION.

[Petaluma Courier.]

It is reported that the sales of the California remedy, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, have grown within a few months till they are now really sensational. The way the fame of this production has spread is simply marvelous. Six months ago it was unknown. To-day it is all over the country. It is authoritatively stated that they have been actually giving it away in San Francisco to people afflicted with dyspepsia, sick headaches, indigestion and liver troubles, not to be paid for unless it cured. Such practical tests are so startlingly convincing as to be almost sensational. It is stated that two of the active principles of the new remedy belong to the vegetable kingdom of California and are so well known to us all under common names that it would surprise us if told them. But we are not surprised at anything Californian, and this recent discovery of the new medicinal virtues of its vegetable kingdom is but another instance of the astonishing possibilities of a soil and climate like ours.

Nearly 100 000 Cases Treated.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved medical inhalations and the Compound Oxygen treatment which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

We take pleasure in announcing to the public the fact that of late we have introduced the COMPOUND OXYGEN TREATMENT with our system of the practice in the cure of Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Insomnia, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Rheumatism and Nervous Prostration.

As is well known, oxygen is the life-giving principle in the air we breathe and ozone in the air imparts that happy and buoyant feeling after thunderstorms. Persons often require more oxygen than is in the air around them, and caus doors and windows to be opened, tear off collars, loosen the waist and call for a fan to displace the stifling and bring fresher air or more oxygen. Traveling is done mainly to resorts where the air contains more oxygen, and mountains are ascended to breathe the oxygen, which is light and ascends from the earth.

Oxygen and ozone are gases, and must be stored up and used by inhaling them. Our apparatus for storing and giving these gases, compounded with other suitable agents, is perfect; and although they are not a cure-all, yet they are undoubtedly the greatest invention made in the last 20 years in any department of medicine, and the results are truly wonderful.

Oxygen acts by purifying the blood, thereby increasing the circulation, promotes absorption, improves digestion and assimilation, increases the capability of the lungs, and acts as a gentle stimulant to the nervous system.

The London, England, Lancet very truthfully says: "The Compound Oxygen treatment is the greatest discovery of the nineteenth century." Clergymen, statesmen, lawyers, doctors and all classes indiscriminately, whenever it is introduced, both use and recommend it.

I have seen so many cases of lung diseases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

CHEAP LAND! -:- GOOD LAND!

Dr. E. T. Barber of Lancaster, Antelope Valley, Los Angeles county, Cal., offers 3,000 acres of land for sale, in tracts of 20 acres and upwards, at $8 to $50 per acre, with liberal terms and title guaranteed.

This valley has raised the premium wheat of the world; sugar beets at the rate of 21½ tons to the acre; barley hay, three tons; eight crops of alfalfa in one year; parsnips seven inches in diameter, and is competent to compete with Spain for raisins and France for champagne.

All this land offered can be covered with mountain water, and has good surface and artesian water, and much of it has a subsoil irrigation.

The railroad facilities are good; the Southern Pacific railroad now crosses it, and three other great railroads are expected to do so in the near future.

Climate good, no cyclones, blizzards, fogs or malaria.

Antelope Valley is the hope of the poor, a boon to men of moderate means, and a bonanza to keen-sighted business men.

THE TIMES ANNUAL.

THE TIMES Annual for 1889 is now on sale to the trade and the general public. It may be purchased from the newsboys, at the bookstores, or singly and in quantities at the TIMES office.

It is a 56-page publication, equivalent in bulk of contents to a 200-page book, chock full of valuable and interesting matter. It is specially adapted for sending to friends at a distance, who desire information regarding this section, its compilation having been undertaken with special reference to this purpose. The sending of one copy is better than the writing of one hundred letters. It contains a carefully prepared statement of Southern California's many advantages and few drawbacks, together with a complete exposition of our resources.

Following are the prices of the Annual:

Single copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	.15
2 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	.25
10 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	$ 1.00
25 copies (in bulk)	2.50
50 copies (in bulk)	5.00
100 copies (in bulk)	8.00
1000 copies (in bulk)	80.00

These prices are low, hardly covering the cost of producing the paper.

The plates and matrices for the Annual are all intact, ready for the printing of any number of copies that may be called for. We hope to have drafts made upon us for thousands of these papers.

City subscribers who would like to show their appreciation of the faithful carriers who have served them through rain and shine (principally shine) during the 366 days of the old year, have an opportunity to do so, to a slight extent, by purchasing of them 10, 25 or 50 copies of the Annual—ready today—thus giving them the benefit of the profit on the paper.

The rate of postage on THE TIMES Annual is two cents for each copy. This can be saved by ordering through the office which pays on the matter by the pound.

To Job Printers and Publishers.

We have a large quantity of news print (roll paper) which we will cut to order very cheap.

Also, 134 reams flat news print, size 30x44, and 12 reams, size 35x47, which we want to sell.

POWER PRESS FOR SALE.

A two-revolution Campbell book and newspaper press, size of bed, 31x46, in good order and condition, of satisfactory speed; suitable for any work. Will be sold at a bargain. TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

PERSONS in the East, who are in a position to know what they are talking about, say that the outlook for good business throughout the country during 1889 is very good.

A SPECIAL session of court has been called to try the New York "boodle" aldermen, and District Attorney Fellows must choose between prosecuting the men he was elected to protect or resigning. Mr. Cleveland's bosom friend is in a very delicate position.

THE Philadelphia Inquirer, commenting upon the solemn reticence observed by most of the visitors who return from Indianapolis, says very truly that there are none who can keep the secrets of the President-elect so well as those who don't know them.

SANTA BARBARA has been subjected to so many burglaries of late that a "citizens' patrol" is suggested as an aid to the police in protecting the homes of the people. The city seems to be suffering more than any other city of its size in California from this class of criminals.

THOSE who oppose the proposition to make whisky free will find comfort in the result of the removal of the tax on whisky in Norway, where that removal is reported to have been followed by an increase of 50 per cent. in insanity and 150 per cent. in idiocy.

A CORRESPONDENT of THE TIMES calls attention to the importance of encouraging practical forestry in Southern California. In a section where the natural growth of forest trees is so limited, there is undoubtedly much profit, both to the State and the individual, in the cultivation of forest trees.

THE reading of Mr. Waterman's voluminous speech was indefinitely postponed in the Assembly, while in the Senate it was listened to for half an hour before the hearers grew weary, and ordered its further reading dispensed with. How would it do to publish the message in weekly installments in the Spirit of the Times as a feuilleton?

The Deadly Cyclone.

The country east of the Rockies has been boasting of its marvelously open winter—strawberries and fresh peas ripening in the open air in some sections of the country. This thing, however, could not last. The old inhabitant shook his head, and said that old Boreas would make the people pay dearly for this unwonted lingering of autumn in the lap of winter. The old inhabitant was right. Like a wolf in the fold, the furious, savage elements of the storm king's realm, restrained beyond their usual period, swept down on the unfortunate dwellers in the plains and cities of Pennsylvania and New York. Our news columns have told—and today again tell—the pitiful tale of wreck, ruin, death and dismemberment which visited Reading, Pittsburgh and other flourishing cities, transforming in the twinkling of an eye happy homes into scenes of wild lamentation and bitter sorrow. Our readers, in perusing accounts of the cyclone's deadly work, have probably often wondered what the effect of such a visitation would be in the crowded portion of a large city. The work of the wind at Reading was a reply to such conjectures. Residents of that city may be thankful that the loss of life was not even greater.

It is not a graceful thing to draw comparisons of climatic advantages in face of such great trouble as the people of Pennsylvania and other Eastern States are now enduring, but we cannot refrain from asking those who are fond of talking about the high price of our lands whether this one fact—our freedom from such deadly manifestations of Nature's dreadful reserve power—is not sufficient to make our land worth a dozen times more per square foot than that in sections where a man never knows upon rising whether his house will still stand upon its foundations at sunset. Surely, among those who have gone through this recent visitation of dread and disaster there will be found none to question the truth of this assumption.

While on this subject, it is interesting to note that Lieut. Nathaniel Lyon of Maine thinks he has discovered the origin of waterspouts, tornadoes and whirlwinds. They are caused, he says, by volcanic action. While living in the vicinity of two volcanoes in the northern part of British America he became positive of the source of these aerial disturbances; that they are generated by vacuum caused by the flame of volcanoes. This vacuum, being left pendant in the air by the revolution of the earth, forms the vortex of a swiftly revolving tornado or waterspout, and is carried by the prevailing winds over land and sea until the atmospheric equilibrium is restored and the force is spent.

The explanation of the cause of tornadoes and whirlwinds can furnish little satisfaction to those who have suffered from their power, nor does Lieut. Lyon attempt to explain why California is so happily exempt from these terrors.

The Admission of the Territories.

It is very plain that the Democrats in the House never really intended to assist in the admission of the Territories at this session of Congress. Their pretense in that direction was intended merely for political effect. The measure proposed by the Democrats is so ingeniously defective that it would impose hindrances and barriers to the admission of the Territories of so serious a character that they would be better off without the bill than with it. For example, it requires Dakota to vote upon the question of division, disregarding the fact that such a vote has already been taken. It provides that if Dakota comes in as two States each shall be entitled to one Representative in Congress, although South Dakota has already more than population enough to give her two Congressmen on the present apportionment, and North Dakota is reasonably certain to be entitled to two by the time that she is admitted. The bill provides for submitting new Constitutions to the people, ignoring the fact that South Dakota and Montana have already adopted Constitutions. After Constitutions had been framed it would still be necessary, under this bill, that Congress should pass formal acts to admit the Territories. As the date for submitting the Constitutions is fixed for November, 1889, this process would involve serious delay, which is apparently what it is intended to do.

Had the Democrats recognized their opportunity and utilized it they might have made a certain amount of political capital out of the admission of the Territories. As it is, the Territories are certain to come in, and it will be no thanks to the Democrats.

AN asserted representative of the Union Pacific, in an interview published by a contemporary, says that the branch from Los Angeles to the ocean will be completed without delay, but admits that the financial troubles of the Union Pacific with the Government may defer the commencement of work on the line from this city to Salt Lake. In view of the fact that many persons have claimed all along that the procurement of the franchise and liberal grant of land would be followed only by the building of a short line to the ocean and the holding of the privilege for sale; and, moreover, that the semi-bankrupt condition of the Union Pacific utterly precludes it from building any more lines at present. It is to be hoped that evidence of good faith in the shape of early commencement and steady continuance of work on a line to Salt Lake may not be too long delayed.

IN the statement of county expenses for the past year, published in yesterday's TIMES, appear some figures which are apparently very heavy. For instance, there is $11,646 for maps, $75,573 for hospital and poor farm, $39,806 for constables, and $32,799 for "sundries." The $97,936 charged for maintaining roads and bridges is also large, when the average condition of our county roads is taken into consideration. It would be a good idea for the taxpayers to take a little interest in the doings of the Board of Supervisors and the expenditure of county funds. County officials who are desirous of doing their duty will be pleased to have the citizens take cognizance of their zeal, while those whose intentions are less honorable need watching all the more. In any case, it is a fundamental duty of the good taxpaying citizen to keep himself informed on the affairs of his county, just as he does regarding his own private business matters.

IT has been very tersely said that every prosperous community has "three strings to its bow"—agriculture, manufactures and commerce. Los Angeles has each of these to some extent, but they all of them admit of unlimited increase. For them we have only laid the foundation. But there is nothing to prevent our making use of these strings and building up commerce, agriculture and manufactures that shall bring to us a constantly increasing prosperity.

TO A friend in Buffalo Mr. Cleveland writes: "I am eagerly counting the days until March 4th, when I shall be free." And yet the great-hearted man willingly paid $10,000 to secure his continued imprisonment in the White House, but that would not bring it.

AMUSEMENTS.

CHEAP THEATRICALS.—Popular price theaters are the ones that make the most money in the end, and Manager Wyatt has come to the conclusion that one of his houses will be such. The Los Angeles Theater will start its new era Sunday night with the Ben and Idalene Cotton Company, at prices ranging from 75 cents to 25 cents, without any extra charge for reserved seats. Matinée prices will be 50 cents and 25 cents.

PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.—The fourth soirée musical of the Philharmonic Society took place last evening at Gardner's Music Hall, when an attractive programme was given. The hall was comfortably filled, and the audience well pleased with the entertainment.

"MURCHISON."

What is Said of Sackville's Pomona Correspondent.

[San Bernardino Times.]

The LOS ANGELES TIMES of this morning gives to the world the real name of "Murchison," which proves to be George Osgoodby of Pomona, a fruit-rancher and an Englishman. That journal reproduces the letters and the telegraphic correspondence in relation thereto, at the time they were first published.

"BUT ONCE IN A CENTURY."

[San Bernardino Index.]

The veil is at last removed and Charles F. Murchison stands revealed in the person of George Osgoodby of Pomona. Mr. Osgoodby is a well-to-do fruit farmer, about 34 years of age, and of English parentage with strongly marked American predilections. He will go down to fame as one who in a short space of time convulsed two nations, made a fool of one of the famous diplomats of the world, and caused a fool President and a fool Secretary of State to advertise to the entire world their folly, besides tearing the mask from the most hypocritical and treasonable political party of all history. But once in a century does a man arise who can make an opportunity so great, and making, improve it. The victims of Osgoodby's acuteness assert that it was "a low-down trick;" but it was not an open forgery such as they hoped to profit by in 1880.

"WILL GO INTO HISTORY."

[San Diego Sun.]

If today's dispatches may be relied upon, George Osgoodby of Pomona will go into history as the author of the Murchison letter, and as a political student of rare perspicacity.

"DID IT WELL."

[East Side Champion.]

The child is born. His name is George. THE TIMES yesterday for about the tenth time republished the Murchison-West correspondence, and now states that the real Murchison is George Osgoodby. Well, George, 'ere's to you. You did it well and will long live in the annals of political history.

"ANYTHING HE WANTS."

[San Diego Union.]

The nom de plume of Murchison covers the fair proportions of George Osgoodby of Pomona, a native of New York and the son of an Englishman. This fact is now formally announced, and Mr. Osgoodby is receiving the compliments of the season. We hasten to nominate him to anything he wants.

"OUGHT TO HAVE A PENSION."

[Riverside Press.]

George Osgoodby of Pomona is the acknowledged author of the famous Murchison letter. He ought to have a pension.

INTERESTING READING.

A correspondent writes: "I believe the matter will not spoil for a long time, and will be in demand for many months. The Murchison letters are most interesting reading. I am glad you got them for THE TIMES, and hope you will not be called away to the Court of St. James. I know what the London fogs are, and feel sure they would not agree with your lungs."

Wool Men Meet at the Capital and Prepare Their Demands for Protective Legislation—A Feed at the White House—Doings in Congress.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Regarding the deadlock in the House over Mr. Weaver's persistent efforts to force consideration of the Oklahoma Bill, the Democrats believe that it would be useless for them to discipline Mr. Weaver by means of a caucus, as he refused to obey the edict of the last one. One Democratic member significantly remarked that the House would not brook Mr. Weaver's action many days longer, but that, if necessary, a resolution of expulsion would be brought in. Such an extreme measure, however, is hardly to be expected, especially as Mr. Weaver is merely exercising a right which the rules accord to him. Some of the Republican members contend that the Speaker should decline to recognize Mr. Weaver when he makes his filibustering motions. They claim that although such action on the part of the Speaker would be in the nature of a despotic exercise of power, it would be justified by the present exigency, and would be in accordance with precedents set by previous Speakers.

DETERMINED DAKOTANS.

A party of Dakota Democrats reached Washington today. They are headed by Chief Justice Bartlett Troop, Associate Justice Spencer, Surveyor-General Morris and M. H. Day. These gentlemen are the delegates chosen by the Mitchell Convention to secure the necessary legislation to carry into effect the desires of the convention, and they express their intention of remaining here until that is accomplished. If it is not done by the Fiftieth Congress, they will urge the calling of an extra session.

A WHITE HOUSE FEAST.

The President gave a state dinner of 46 covers to members of the Cabinet tonight, the second of the winter's series of official entertainments. The White House was handsomely decorated for the occasion. A miniature lake, with banks lined with evergreens and red and white roses, was the principal floral decoration, and was flanked at the ends by large pots of lovely flowers. The Marine Band rendered choice selections.

THE WOOL-GROWERS' DEMAND.

The National Wool-growers' Association met in convention today. Officers were elected as follows: President, Hon. John McDowell of Washington; vice-president, Col. William Black of Texas; treasurer, I. H. Wallace of Missouri; secretary, J. H. Kirkpatrick of California.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that while Congress maintains the general policy of protection, wool-growers and wool manufacturers in the United States have a right to demand that the duties on wool and on woolen and worsted goods shall be adjusted and maintained so as to secure to them the American market. They protest against the Senate Tariff Bill, so far as it affects wool. A committee of seven is ordered to formulate such a schedule of tariff duties for wool as may be deemed just and necessary, and to present the same to the Finance Committee of the Senate and urge its adoption. They further declare that the determination of an economic and financial policy for this Government is so important to wool-growing and all other industries, and to the business of the Nation, as to require immediate and definite legislation, and, if this shall not be accomplished during the present Congress, an extra session of the Fifty-first Congress is recommended.

THE DUTY ON LUMBER.

The Post tomorrow will say: "The members of the Senate Committee having charge of the Tariff Bill have decided to offer an amendment making the duty on lumber $150 per thousand feet, a reduction of 25 per cent. in the bill as reported from the committee. It was first proposed to make the duty $125, but a compromise on $150 was secured by Senators from the Northwest. A proviso will be inserted, that this rate shall be conditional on Canada, removing her expert duty on lumber.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

It is reported that the Senate Committee on Military Affairs will report favorably on the nominations of ex-Capt. Douglass Scott and Lieut. Charles Hay, recently nominated by the President, as commissaries of subsistence.

The total coinage of the United States mints for the calendar year of 1888 was $65,218,614, divided as follows: Gold, $31,380,808; silver, $33,025,608; minor coins, $812,200.

Senator Cullom today reported favorably the bill from the Commerce Committee to increase the salary of the Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service to $6000 per annum, the amount paid the Surgeon-General of the army.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—The Senate, after routine business, resumed consideration of the Tariff Bill at the paragraph making leather, not specially enumerated or provided for, 15 per cent. ad valorem. No amendment was offered.

Mr. Vance moved to amend the paragraph taxing calfskins, etc., 25 cents per pound by reducing to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

On motion of Mr. Allison paragraph 415 taxing manufactures of alabaster, amber, etc., 25 per cent. ad valorem was amended by omitting from it the words "cork or cork bark" and adding to it the words "osier or willow prepared for basket makers' use."

Paragraph 416 taxing manufactures of bone, etc., 30 per cent. ad valorem was, on motion of Mr. Allison, amended by adding to it "cork or cork bark."

Mr. Allison moved to amend paragraph 425 by reducing the duty on pearls from 25 to 10 per cent. ad valorem. Adopted.

After some discussion Mr. Brown moved to increase the rate on precious stones set and not specially enumerated from 25 to 40 per cent. ad valorem so as to make it correspond with the amendment yesterday as to jewelry. Agreed to.

Mr. Brown moved to amend paragraph 440, last on the dutiable list, taxing watches and watch cases 25 per cent. ad valorem by adding to it gold watches and gold watch cases 40 per cent. ad valorem. Agreed to.

The Clerk then proceeded to read the free list, beginning at paragraph 441.

Mr. Vance objected to the paragraph as to braids, plaids, laces, etc., suitable for ornamenting hats and bonnets, and moved to tax them 20 per cent. ad valorem. Rejected.

Mr. Plumb moved to make paragraph 557 read simply "fresh fish," striking out all other words.

No quorum voted, and the bill was laid aside, 12 pages having been disposed of today. Adjourned.

House.—In the House Mr. Weaver of Iowa raised no objection to the reading of the journal, but the Clerk having concluded that task Mr. Weaver brought forward his dilatory motion to adjourn, and that when the House adjourned it be to meet Saturday. Ballots and roll calls were then ordered until 1:40, when the House, recognizing its helplessness, adjourned.

Departed with Much Boodle.

EAST SAGINAW (Mich.), Jan. 10.—Charles H. Dixon, Deputy County Treasurer, left the city four days ago, taking with him a considerable part of the county funds.

MASON CITY (Iowa), Jan. 10.—The Sheriff was notified today that E. Woodford, Iowa Central agent at Sheffield, Iowa, had disappeared, leaving a heavy shortage in his accounts with the company.

Nothing Suppressed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—A dispatch from Galesburg, Ill., today, said that the engineers claimed that there was a document in connection with the "Q" strike settlement which had not been made public. A reporter called on Vice-president Stone this afternoon and was informed that the only document printed was his letter to General Manager Ripley, a copy of which had been given to the strikers, showing the spirit in which the agreement was to be carried out. Mr. Stone gave the reporter a copy of this letter, which contains nothing at variance with the terms of settlement.

Yellow Fever on the Yantic.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The U.S.S. Yantic, Commander Heyerman, from Port-au-Prince, Hayti, January 1st, arrived tonight at quarantine. On January 7th Corp. Rowe died of yellow fever. Cadet Bristol and Seaman Keller are convalescent. Lieut. Miles is not so well, but hopeful.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Secretary Whitney says there is no truth in the report that yellow fever has broken out on the U. S. S. Galena, now in Haytian waters.

A Peace-maker Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Catharine Handley, a lodging-house keeper, died this afternoon from the effects of a knife wound in the hand, received on New Year's day. Thomas B. Manning, a lodger, and James Welch had a quarrel that day, and Manning attempted to stab the latter. Mrs. Handley interposing received the blow in her hand, and it is supposed blood-poisoning ensued. Manning was arrested at the time, and is still in jail. He has been charged with murder.

Mines to Be Closed.

VICTORIA (B. C.), Jan. 10.—In response to a telegram tonight from the Wellington mines, stating that the miners refuse to go to work, Dunsmuir, owner of the mines, ordered his manager to notify the miners to leave the company's houses, and that no wages would be received until the miners delivered their tools to the storekeeper. It is thought the mines will be closed for two or three months.

Discontinued a Train.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Southern Pacific Company will temporarily abandon the train leaving here in the morning at 9 o'clock, beginning next Monday, on account of the east-bound travel being very light. Passenger Agent Goodman states that the reason for abandoning the train is the growing popularity of the second-class "tourist sleeper" business.

A Famous Traveler.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Among the passengers in the steamship Thingvalla, which arrived today from Copenhagen, is Dr. Phil Carl Lumholtz, the Norwegian explorer and traveler, who has lived for the last four years among the savages of Central Australia. He intends traveling through this country.

BULLDOZING.

Disgraceful Doings in the Indiana Senate.

Democrats Exclude Lieut.-Gov. Robertson by Force,

And Proceed to Organize—Scenes of Excitement.

Other Eastern Dispatches—A Chicago Newspaper Not Afraid of the Police—Dakota's Champions Still Earnestly Pressing Her Claims on Gen. Harrison.

By Telegraph to The Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] The fifty-sixth General Assembly of Indiana convened this morning. The Democrats in caucus had determined to repeat their action of two years ago and refuse to recognize the authority of the Republican Lieutenant-governor, Robertson. Accordingly large crowds gathered about the Senate chamber this morning in anticipation of seeing a personal encounter.

Col. Robertson arrived early, and was refused admittance by the Doorkeeper. Under the law it is the duty of the State Auditor to organize the Senate in the absence of the presiding officer. When that body convened, Judge Mitchell of the Supreme Court asked if Auditor Carr was present. Mr. Carr stepped to the front and briefly stated that the constitutional presiding officer was at the door demanding admission, and he would not usurp his power.

Senator Johnson then submitted a resolution directing the doorkeeper to admit Col. Robertson.

He put the resolution to a vote, and amid a terrible uproar declared it carried, but it had no effect on the Democratic doorkeeper.

Judge Mitchell and the Democratic Senators then proceeded to organization, the Republicans refraining from voting.

Senator James F. Cox was chosen president of the Senate, and took the chair. The Republicans protested against Cox taking the oath, but Judge Mitchell administered it and then left the chamber. The minor offices were filled and the Senate then adjourned.

HARRISON'S VISITORS.

Dakota Pushing Her Claims with the President-elect.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Yesterday's stormy weather was succeeded by a bright, sunshiny day, with melting snow. A large number of visitors called at Harrison's residence, but not many were political callers. One of the first visitors of note was J. A. Edgerton, Senator-elect from the new State of South Dakota, who is on his way to Washington. He had a conference with the President-elect, and talked over the prospects of the admission of Dakota.

The other visitors were Hon. W. D. Farquhar of Massachusetts and Capt. Prati of the Carlisle (Pa.) Indian School. The latter's conference with Gen. Harrison was upon Indian educational affairs. His stay was cut short by the receipt of a telegram stating that two buildings comprising part of the school were unroofed by yesterday's cyclone.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—No news has been received of the National steamer Denmark, which left London for this port 22 days ago.

WILL NOT BACK DOWN.

A Chicago Paper That Does Not Fear Libel Suits.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Tonight Inspector Bonfield and Capt. Schaack sent a note to the Times saying that in the ordinary process of law it will be months before a decision in their libel proceedings can be reached in their case and offering to submit the whole matter immediately to three of the Circuit Judges of the city, to be selected by the full bench, and decide the matter. If the three, or two of them, find a single charge against the officers sustained, Bonfield and Schaack bind themselves to at once retire from office and dismiss all proceedings, civil and criminal, against the Times and its editors.

The Times tomorrow will decline the offer, saying that the crime cannot be compromised and that the offer is simply a scheme to stem as far as possible the tide of public opinion against complainants. The Times claims it will not stop its investigation now, while every day new evidences are accumulating.

The Duchess of Marlborough's Suit.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—A petition was made today to Surrogate Ransom by Robert Sewell, representing the Duchess of Marlborough, née Mrs. Louis C. Hammersley, for an order requiring the executors of her former husband's estate to pay his client $300,000. The Duchess in her petition for this allowance stated that the income of the estate in the hands of the executors was $350,000 a year. She also asserted that she was entitled to this sum whether her former husband's will was admitted to probate or not. The Duchess intends to use $150,000 of this sum in purchasing a residence, and the balance to defray expenses and sustain the rank and social position which she has assumed. Decision reserved.

Paying for His Son's Crime.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—William R. Foster, father of William R. Foster, Jr., who recently robbed the Produce Exchange gratuity fund of $198,000 and then decamped, sent today a check for $50,000 for the benefit of the gratuity fund. In a note inclosed the old man said he had intended to divide his fortune among his children, but had concluded to give his son's share to the gratuity fund as a partial payment of stealings.

Called to His Door and Shot.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—Ward McManus, a well-known capitalist and real-estate owner of this city, was called to the door of his residence today by Henry Kriz and shot twice. His wounds are not serious. Kriz had invented a car motor and applied to McManus for financial aid in bringing the invention before the public. McManus declined, and the shooting is the result. Kriz escaped.

Marine Engineers.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10.—At the national convention of marine engineers the following officers were today elected for the ensuing year: A. L. Boyes, New York, president; D. C. Martin, San Francisco, vice-president; J. H. Harris, St. Louis, secretary; John H. Galway, Detroit, treasurer.

Latest Deal Among the Great Railways.

The "Clearing-house" Scheme to Be Put in Operation.

No Parallel Lines the Watchword of Combination.

The Project Ostensibly in the Interest of a Thorough Enforcement of the Interstate Act—Banker Morgan's Significant Remarks—Scheme in Detail.

By Telegraph to the Times.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] At a conference today between bankers and presidents of the railroad lines west of Chicago and St. Louis, which lasted about three hours, Charles F. Adams, William B. Strong and Frank S. Bond, who were appointed a committee at the last meeting to perfect a plan of organization and confer with the Interstate Commerce Commission, submitted a report and plan.

In the report the committee says it has considered that in matters of traffic it was best to adhere strictly to the agreement known as "the agreement of presidents of the 1st of January, 1889." They have not sought to extend the provisions of that agreement, or introduce into the present plan features likely to excite discussion. They have sought to introduce in the simplest possible form some machinery necessary to secure obedience to the Interstate Commerce Act, and at the same time to make the agreement of January 1st effective. In order more effectually to secure the results it is proposed that the association should be an association of presidents, to the end that the highest officials of the various companies may be made responsible, the one to the other. The plan appears to be in its entirety very similar to that of the proposed which created so much comment a short time ago. It is substantially as follows:

The object of the association is the enforcement of the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act and the establishment and maintenance of public, reasonable, uniform and stable rates in conformity with the provisions therein; also to secure complete reports of all competitive traffic subject to the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act and such other traffic as is deemed advisable. The board of managers shall consist of an accredited representative of each company, the president of which is a member of the association. Rate committees appointed by the board of managers for freight and passenger departments shall be constituted, whose duty it shall be to consider all proposed changes in rates, rules and regulations of traffic subject to the association. Their conclusion, when unanimous, shall be made effective when they so order, but if they differ the question at issue shall be referred to the board of managers, and if they disagree it shall be arbitrated by the executive board, as hereinafter provided. A provision for through rates is provided for.

One officer of each company, the president of which is a member of the association, shall be held responsible for the strict maintenance by his company of all rates and rules established by the association. The board of managers shall hereafter establish such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient to limit the needless outlay and reckless striving for business through separate agencies or the payment of commissions, or they may, if they deem proper, totally abolish and forbid the same in whole or in part, or cause joint agencies to be established, the expenses of which shall be paid by the association. The auditor of the association shall have authority to examine and check any and all accounts of each company. No vouchers or other form of concession which would reduce the established rates or influence the routing of business shall be paid or allowed unless authority is given by the executive board.

The comptrollers or general auditors shall be instructed by their respective presidents to pass no waybills, expense bills, claims or vouchers extended at rates or charges different from those duly authorized. Officers making reports to the association shall certify to their correctness, and in case of irregularities those charged may be examined under oath by the executive board.

PENALTIES TO BE IMPOSED.

When a charge is made to the executive board that any provision of the Interstate Commerce Act has been violated, or any rate, rule or regulation established by the association disregarded, the accused shall be given ten days in which to reply, and if after investigation it then should appear to the executive board or a majority thereof that the charge is sustained, said executive board shall, if such offense involve a violation real or apparent of the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, forthwith communicate its finding, together with the evidence in support thereof, to the Interstate Commerce Commissioners for such action as such commissioners may deem proper. If such offense involves a violation only of articles of this agreement, and does not involve, in addition thereto, any violation of the provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, penalty shall be assessed of not less than $250 for each offense.

The presidents agree among themselves to immediately discharge, on recommendation of the Executive Board, any employé guilty of violation of any provision of this agreement, and he shall not be engaged or employed by any member of the association, except on approval of the Executive Board.

The board of managers shall determine the territory to be covered by the agreement, and the association shall, on matters which particularly lie in any given territory, be divided into sections by the board of managers, and for the consideration of subjects solely concerning such groups, separate meetings may be held. Statistical statements shall be issued weekly to members. In order to attest the sincerity of members, and to create a fund from which the fines assessed can be collected, each member shall deposit and keep good in a bank to be named by the managers, to the credit and subject to the draft of the executive board, not less than $1000 in any case, nor more than $5000, as may be agreed, or as the executive board shall determine. The agreement of the presidents, known as the "agreement of January 1, 1889," is adapted as a portion of the articles of the association.

In presenting the documents on behalf of the committee, Charles Francis Adams said that the report and plan of organization had been discussed with the Interstate Commissioners in detail. They were invited to criticise it, and expressed a decided opinion that the plan was a vast improvement on anything yet proposed which had come to their knowledge. They suggested a few alterations in it relating to matters of form and expression, but in no case substantially affecting the report. All of these changes the committee adopted.

THE PLAN APPROVED.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted and the committee discharged, by representatives of the western roads. After a discussion in which the trunk line presidents participated, the following resolution was unanimously passed by all present:

"Resolved, that the fundamental principles upon which the plan reported is based, to wit, the enforcement of the Interstate Commerce Law and arbitration of all differences between companies, be and they are approved, and will be adhered to in perfecting the proposed organization."

The following resolution, moved by Depew and seconded by Roberts, was unanimously passed by the trunk-line presidents and handed to the Chairman, with the request that it should be incorporated in the proceedings of the meeting:

"Resolved, that we are heartily in favor of a strict enforcement of the Interstate Act; of the maintenance of reasonable rates; of the principle of arbitration, and the formation of an association to enforce these objects under the general scope of the report of the committee of presidents of western roads, and that the trunk-line presidents should meet at the earliest possible date to form an association to carry these purposes into effect."

A resolution disapproving the payment of commissions was passed unanimously by all present excepting Mr. Cable of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road, who objected to voting until his competitors, not present, could be heard.

OPPOSED TO PARALLEL LINES.

Mr. Morgan said: "In regard to the remarks made informally by Mr. Roberts about building parallel lines and the attitude of bankers thereto, I am quite prepared to say in behalf of the houses represented here, that if the organization can be formed practically on the basis submitted by the committee, with an Executive Committee able to enforce its provisions, upon which bankers shall be represented, they are prepared to say that they will not negotiate, and will do all in their power to prevent the negotiation of any securities for the construction of parallel lines, or the extension of lines not unanimously approved by such Executive Committee."

The meeting then adjourned and met again at 2 o'clock, and discussed the details of the proposed plan.

At the latter session the plan was approved section by section, and was ordered engrossed for signatures. The meeting then adjourned to meet at Chicago on call of the chairman.

A Train Snowed Up.

"SHOOTING" PICTURES.

A Trip Through Chinatown with a Kodak Camera.

A gentleman, the happy owner of a most fluent tongue, entered the TIMES local-room last night, and laying a small box, about six inches long by three high, on the city editor's desk, asked if he would like to go out "shooting" that evening. The mandarin of the blue pencil replied that he had no great hankering for the sport at that moment, being at peace with all mankind, except a few unesteemed contemporaries, and these he preferred should die a lingering death. The visitor hastened to state that he was not thinking at all of shooting to kill, only of shooting for views. He simply desired to exhibit, for the benefit of the local room, a little dodge for taking instantaneous photographs by day or night. Turning to a companion who had entered with him he desired him to fire a "shot." That gentleman produced a kind of scoop shovel, painted white, and pulled the trigger, while the first visitor pointed the little box at an occupant of the room. Suddenly a snap was heard, a flash like lightning dazzled the eyes, a little puff of smoke rose to the ceiling and the "subject" was informed that his photograph had been taken. "That's all the 'shooting' I do," said the visitor. "My name is S. C. Jones, agent for the Kodak Instantaneous Camera, and if you will send a reporter with me this evening I'll show him a little night gunning."

A reporter was detailed to accompany the head artilleryman, who proposed beating the Chinatown preserves by lamplight. The expedition numbered four; the head cannon-box carrier, the "flash" bearer, an aide-de-camp and the note-taker. Mr. Jones said he had reconnoitered the ground the previous night, and was prepared to lead the way. He marched the inroders into a little 6x10 cubby hole in a dark alley, down in Chinatown, used as an opium den by a fat, old, spectacled Chinaman named Yuen Kee, but whom Mr. Jones familiarly addressed as "papa." "Papa" was very glad indeed to see Mr. Jones, and showed the army the opium stalls where a few Chinese fiends were "hitting the pipe." Mr. Jones explained most eloquently to "papa" and his customers that he was the agent for a cheap electric light, without which no Chinese residence was complete, and offered to give an illustration of how it worked. Assent was freely given, and literally in a flash, the assistant artilleryman shot his apparatus, and a good picture of the opium fiends, puffing away, was taken. "Papa" seem delighted, and never suspecting his picture was being stored up in the box, rubbed his eyes and asked for more. More flashes, and "papa" in various attitudes, his customers and his den, were transferred on the films. The flashes attracted a large number of Chinese, who peeked in through the windows in astonishment. Gen. Jones led the way next to a Chinese barber shop, where, though no electric lights were needed by the proprietor, no objection was made to an exhibition. With the diplomacy of a Bismarck, Gen. Jones "shot" a highbinder who was getting his head shaved, another washing his face, and the boss barber and his assistants in various attitudes of astonishment.

Next a raid was made on a Chinese general store, where another "shot" was taken and a firstrate picture obtained. All this time it must be remembered, not even a suspicion of the true object of the visit passed over the Chinese mind, Gen. Jones talking most evangelically about his electric light and sighting his cannon camera so skillfully that no attention was paid to the deadly machine.

A Chinese fruit stall was next "shot," and then a blonde young woman with a red wrapper and a hoarse voice, who peeped through a latticed window and invited the army to pay her a fleeting visit, fell a victim. She, however, was the only one so far who objected. She anathematized the "shooters" forcibly and fluently. But then she was American and not Chinese.

Another Chinese store was raided, where the proprietor and two of his wives were standing behind the counter putting up Chinese delicacies in packages. When the flash went up, the two Chinese girls squawked in terror, and, crouching behind the counter, jabbered something about white devils. Preparations were being made to carry the war into Africa and Mexico, when the assistant artilleryman made the alarming discovery that the ammunition was all expended. A council of war was accordingly held and a cessation of hostilities for the night ordered by Gen. Jones. The army then took a wet "shot" themselves and disbanded.

The instrument with which the cannonading was done is what is known as the Kodak camera for taking instantaneous photographs either by night or day. It is 7¼ inches long by 3¼ deep and 3 inches wide, and weighs, when ready for action, just one pound and ten ounces. All that is necessary for good work is a little practice in pressing the button on top of the camera which opens and closes the lens, and perhaps the most important of all, holding it perfectly steady. For night work one must have an assistant to set off the flash. This is composed of blitz pulver—a magnesium powder. It is spread on a small plate, shielded at the back by an upright piece of tin to protect the eye. A toy pistol cap is placed in the center of the powder and discharged by pulling the trigger of a small hammer. A flash as vivid as lightning occurs immediately, and the photo is taken. It can be used in a lighted room or in a dark one. In the street or inside the house—in fact, anywhere. There is enough material in the camera to take 100 photographs, which can be taken consecutively as fast as the button can be pressed. The lens produces a photograph about three inches in diameter. These can be sent to any photographer to be developed and printed either on blue, albumen or bromide papers. These can also be enlarged or reduced at wish.

The prints of the views taken last night can be seen either at the agent's or at the TIMES office.

The Senate Endures a Portion, and Then Drops It.

The Assembly Unable to Face the Ponderous Message.

Brotherhood Engineers Hearing Complaints Against a Southern Pacific Master Mechanic—Another Prize Fight at San Francisco—The Bullion Product.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock by Chairman White, and the reading of the Governor's message was begun.

The reading had proceeded half an hour, when a motion by Mr. Heacock of Santa Barbara, that its further reading be dispensed with, was carried.

A motion, also made by Mr. Heacock, to the effect that the State codes be furnished each Senator, was also carried, and adjournment was then taken until 1:30 o'clock to permit preparation of the rules.

Among the bills introduced in the Senate this afternoon were the following:

By President White: Providing for the appropriation of $3365 for payment of expenses of the funeral of the late Gov. Bartlett.

By Mr. Yell: Making an appropriation for a sum of money for the use of the Forestry Committee; also an act to amend the code relative to the appointment of the Board of State Library Trustees; an act providing for the appointment of five committeemen of the Supreme Court and a Secretary; an act to repeal the law regulating the avocation of fishing in the waters of the State; an act to amend the constitution of the State relating to revenue taxation; an act to amend the election laws; an act providing for the removal of judicial officers; an act to create a State Board of Industry; an act to regulate the hours of labor of minors and females; an act to provide for the protection of lands from overflow, other than swamp lands; an act providing for county law libraries.

Mr. Caminetti of Amador submitted a set of rules for the government of the Senate, which were adopted without amendments. The rules are the same as those which governed the last session, with a few changes, the principal one of which is that the Chair is empowered to appoint standing committees.

Eighty-six bills were filed, after which an adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Assembly.

In the Assembly the reading of the Governor's message was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. McCarthy's resolution to allow every press correspondent $10 worth of stationery was taken up. The resolution was opposed by several members, and finally voted down by a vote of 52 to 36.

A number of resolutions were offered, providing minor places for various persons, and all were referred to the Committee on Attachés.

The House refused to concur in Brierly's motion for a reconsideration of the vote allowing the San Francisco delegation a clerk.

Adjourned.

It is believed that the Legislature will adjourn tomorrow until Monday, and such adjournment would have been taken today had there not been a question whether more than three days' adjournment is legal.

MEN WITH GRIEVANCES.

Chief Arthur Hears Complaint Against Master Mechanic Ryan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Grand Master F. P. Sargent of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen arrived today from the East. Sargent met Chief Arthur shortly after his arrival, and the two, with the local Grievance Committee, held a secret conference at which the alleged unjust treatment of engineers and firemen by District Master Mechanic Ryan of the Atlantic division of the Southern Pacific Company was discussed at length, and a detailed report of the many complaints brought against Ryan was prepared. Another conference will be held tomorrow.

A Year's Bullion Product.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The report of Vice-president and General Manager Valentine of Wells-Fargo Express gives the gold dust and bullion product in California for the year 1888 as $10,076,091, silver bullion $652,622, ores and base bullion $1,334,725. In Nevada the gold dust and bullion was $2,876,375, silver bullion $6,858,520, ores and base bullion $2,570,868. In Washington Territory the gold was $124,112. In Alaska, gold $820,000. In Arizona, gold $812,000, silver bullion $850,798, ores and base bullion $3,460,470.

Off the Track.

TULARE, Jan. 10.—A train on the Visalia and Tulare motor road was derailed this afternoon, coming into this city. The engine and one car left the track, and were badly damaged. Engineer Daly crawled out of the wreck with a scalp wound and other slight injuries. Joe Patnon, the fireman, had an ankle sprained, and one or two passengers were hurt slightly, none seriously. The wreck occurred at the switch, and was owing to the spreading of the rails.

Knocked Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 10.—Charles Lewis, claiming the colored middle-weight championship of New York, and Charles Wallace, claiming the colored middle-weight championship of Colorado, fought eight hard rounds for the Pacific Coast championship tonight, and Lewis was knocked out in the last round.

Scottish Rite Masons.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Grand Consistory of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of California at Masonic Temple today elected Stephen Wing of Stockton Grand Master, and William A. Robertson of San Francisco Grand Prophet.

Invited to Exhibit.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The State Board of Trade has been asked to make an exhibit at the International Fair of Buffalo, N. Y., September 3d to 13th.

Assigned.

RED BLUFF, Jan. 10.—W. D. Soule made an assignment today. His liabilities are over $21,000.

The Weather.

SIGNAL OFFICE, LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—At 5:07 a.m. the thermometer registered 52; at 5:07 p.m., 56. Barometer for corresponding periods, 29.97, 29.98. Maximum temperature, 63; minimum temperature, 50. Weather cloudy.

INDICATIONS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Indications for 24 hours: For California fair weather in Southern California; rain followed by fair weather in Northern California.

California Waukesha!

PURE WATER!

The CORONADO BEACH COMP'Y

Made a very valuable and important discovery while investigating the water supply of the Otay Valley, San Diego county. They came upon a series of living springs, the water of which has similar properties to the celebrated

WAUKESHA WATER.

Clear, sparkling, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the taste; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities.

This water has been piped to South San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and used with the utmost satisfaction and favorable results.

AN ANALYSIS

Made of this late discovery by the celebrated chemist, C. Gilbert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly medicinal qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles as

THE WAUKESHA WATER.

The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Coronado. Many severe cases of kidney disease among elderly people have been greatly improved, and others completely cured.

SIMI RANCHO!

Cheap Lands. Good Lands. Prices and Terms to Encourage Settlers.

So much has been said and written about the high prices for ordinary farming and fruit land in Southern California that many Eastern people think that no good land can be had at less than $200 per acre in any good locality. But if you will call at the headquarters of Simi Land and Water Company you will find that you can buy well watered stock ranges at $5 to $15 per acre, and every one of these ranges contains more or less good farming land. You can buy first-class valley lands for $30 to $75 per acre, and small tracts of 10, 20 or 40 acres, for fruit farms, at about the same price. Colonies who want from 1000 to 5000 acres can be placed on fine lands, suitable for dividing among their members, at $25 to $40 per acre. This company cares nothing for booms, and asks no inflated prices for their lands. We own nearly 100,000 acres, and have a perfect and undisputed title. The object is to furnish good lands, to actual settlers, at prices within reach of any who can buy land at all, and on terms which will enable men of moderate means to acquire homes in an attractive and healthful part of Southern California. We do not claim to have the best land in the State, and at present are not directly on a railroad, but expect to be before long. But as we do claim to offer better land and more advantages and on easier terms of payment than any other place that has been brought to our notice. It will cost you nothing but a postal card to get detailed information about these lands. If you want a farm or a stock range write or call at 19 West First street, Los Angeles, and ask about the Simi ranch.

It affords me great pleasure to recommend your Asbestos Paint. I have used it on my own buildings, and after being exposed to the weather fully two years it still shows a bright and glossy surface. Have also sold large quantities in this city and county, and in all cases have I heard the same report. Your Asbestos Fire Cement and Boiler Covering I have used for boiler covering in all ways, and must say that it is the best that I have ever handled. I take great pleasure in recommending it to the trade and public at large.

OCEAN PALACES.

The steamships Queen of the Pacific, Santa Rosa and City of Puebla excel in their appointments and speed anything afloat in this country; and, for comfort and convenience, are ahead of the transatlantic lines.

Eastern tourists should treat themselves to a run up the coast. The voyage is usually smooth and delightful. A trip to San Luis Obispo and a ride over the Pacific Coast Railway, through the beautiful Avila Canon, the Arroyo Grande and Santa Maria Valleys, to Los Olives (the home of the olive), is most enjoyable.

The Avila and Pismo beaches are very fine, and the celebrated Avila Hot Sulphur Springs are close at hand.

The new and beautiful Hotel Ramona is one of the finest in the country, and the rates are very reasonable.

PASADENA NEWS.

WHAT IT WILL COST TO LIGHT THE CITY.

Hymeneal — At the Tabernacle — Amusements—Funeral of Owen Brown—Interesting Personal and Local Budget.

PASADENA, Jan. 10.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Charles Gloeckner, an employé of the Pasadena steam laundry, has joined his fortunes with his boarding mistress, Mrs. A. M. Hanney, and was married last evening in Los Angeles. The marriage was a surprise to many, on account of the difference of ages of the bride and groom. Sacramento is the point destined on their wedding tour, after which they will return to Los Angeles, where they will in the future reside.

John G. Rogers and Miss Anna Boyce of this city were also joined in connubial felicity by the Rev. Chichester in the city of Los Angeles yesterday. In the future they will reside on South Fair Oaks avenue.

Rev. M. N. Cornelius preaches his farewell sermon and charge to the congregation of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening of the coming week. Next week he will remove his family to San Francisco, their future home.

In connection with the lecture at the Methodist Tabernacle, the "Y's" gave an excellent introductory programme. Good music was rendered, and several very excellent selection given.

The holiness band still draws fair audiences to its temple on North Fair Oaks avenue. The outdoor singing is much appreciated.

An itinerant colored quartette delighted a large audience of young men in Alfalfa Square this evening. The singing was very fine.

On a rough estimate it will cost the city $35 per year for a single gas lamp on a street corner. To properly distribute the supply and light the entire city would require 200 lights at an outlay of $7000 per annum. The cost of electricity will foot up to nearly this amount, with lights scattered over one-fourth of the city. The question of street lighting is an important one and should be acted upon immediately by the City Council. Bids have been advertised for, and we trust early attention will be paid to this all-important subject. Meantime one-half of the city is in darkness and without police protection. Did you ever see a a police officer who claimed Orange Grove or Lake avenues as his beat? No! and you never will.

The funeral services of the late Owen Brown took place in the Tabernacle this morning at 10 o'clock and were very largely attended. The services were conducted by George Woodford, Rev. R. A. Hartley, Rev. D. D. Hill, Rev. E. L. Conger, Rev. P. F. Bresee and H. N. Rust, Esq. Appropriate adresses were made by George Woodfood and Rev. E. L. Conger. The remains were interred in the cemetery on the Highlands.

The remains of the late Thomas F. Flynn were shipped to Boston this afternoon.

The Gun Club will have a shoot tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

George Berunski, the irrepressible, still languishes in durance vile, and proposes to outstrip Dr. Tanner's fast.

The East Side Whist Club spent a very enjoyable time at the residence of W. J. McCaldin on Moline avenue.

PERSONAL.

W. N. Noble and E. G. Curtis of Lander, W. T., are in the city.

A. A. Hubbard of the Angel City was a Pasadena caller this morning.

Hugh Wallace, a commercial traveler of New York city, is a visitor hereabouts.

W. L. Carter has gone east again, and this time to New York. Mr. Carter must find enjoyment in transcontinental trips.

John Majors is home from San Diego.

S. P. Jewett has gone on a business trip to San Francisco.

Charles Gloeckner and wife left last evening on a wedding tour to San Francisco and Sacramento.

Howard Johnson of Oskaloosa, Iowa, is among recent arrivals.

H. W. Magee left for San Francisco this evening to dispose of some mining interests in the vicinity of Yuma.

E. C. Webster, the "father" of Pasadena, contemplates a trip to the northern country shortly. He will be accompanied by several prominent gentlemen of this city. They go on pleasure bent.

Dr. G. G. Green of New Jersey and, of "August Flower" fame, arrived with his family this morning by private car. He will winter here.

Mrs. I. N. Mundell, wife of Marshal Mundell, is confined to her home by reason of illness.

Among the Los Angeles guests at the Carlton today were George A. Montgomery, Miss Ella Richardson and Chester Montgomery.

Merton Duncan, the pedal artist, has gone home to San Francisco and the East.

T. C. Dearborn of Portland, Me., is at the Acme.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

San Gabriel.

SAN GABRIEL, Jan. 4.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] San Gabriel has been very quiet since the excitement consequent on the election has passed away. Even the celebration of the holidays caused scarcely a ripple. The timely and copious rains make a prosperous season for our farmers almost a certainty. All of the lands around here that last season were sacred to weeds and corner lots are being put under the plow and planted to something more profitable than small white stakes. This is as it should be, for it was a most grievous mistake to cut up our finest agricultural lands into unproductive town lots. Small farms, with industrious farmers, is what we need. How many hundred such would it take to supply the Los Angeles market alone? It is a shame and a disgrace that we cannot furnish our home market with all the butter, eggs, vegetables and poultry that we need. It would be interesting to know how much money is annually sent out of this county for the necessaries of life that we might, could and ought to produce at home. The city of Los Angeles offers one of the most profitable markets to the small farmer of any in the country, and it is a mystery to me that some attempt is not made to supply it from the adjacent country.

In a recent number of THE TIMES interviews with some of our leading employers of labor were published, giving their views on the labor problem. Several expressed the opinion that they could not get along without the Chinese, and that white labor was unreliable. The presence of the Chinamen is primarily responsible for this unreliability of the white laborer, and the Mongolian would be cheaply got rid of even at the expense of the entire ruin of our fruit interests. What do such men as E. J. Baldwin profit the commonwealth, who prefer Chinamen, and pay white and Chinese alike $1.25 a day? Were E. J. B. and his Chinese gone to kingdom come the great Santa Anita ranch would remain with its thousands of acres of rich lands, that would make homes for hundreds of white families, who would be of more benefit to God and the country in a week than the present occupiers in a year.

Let the Chinese go and our present fruit-growers with them, if they cannot afford to pay living wages to Caucasians. God Almighty never intended this earthly Paradise to be occupied by a few millionaires and their hordes of serfs. The present state of affairs cannot be changed too soon. Los Angeles is bound to be a great city one of these days, but its progress in true prosperity will be long retarded unless this question is settled in favor of the white man. According to those interviews with the employers of labor, it is a question as to whether or not this is a white man's country.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. J. J. Martin, manager of the San Gabriel, is about to leave us. As a business man and a host, he has few equals in this southern country.

W. L. Fuller has sold his homestead to Albert Smith, manager of Judge W. P. Gardner's ranch, at this place. Mr. Fuller is about to move to Riverside.

Rev. Bernard Smyth of the Mission San Gabriel Church has been appointed pastor of Hollister, San Benito county. Father Smyth won the hearts of his entire congregation during his stay among us, and the announcement of his promotion created a feeling almost of dismay among his parishioners. We understand that he is to be succeeded in this parish by Father Scammell of Los Angeles.

The land-owners and business men of Los Angeles county will make a big mistake if they do not continue to advertise the advantages of this section. The people of the n.c.b. are bestirring themselves, and unless we look to it they will get away with the lion's share of the immigration this year. In fact, they seem to be doing it now. The business men of Los Angeles could not do a better thing than to purchase a large edition of THE TIMES Annual and distribute them judiciously throughout the East. The lies propagated wholesale about this section have to be met squarely, and I know of no better answer than is contained in your last Annual. First-class lands within from five to twenty miles of Los Angeles can be bought cheaper today than in many places from fifty to a hundred miles from San Francisco, with the climate thrown in. S. G.

Notice of Sale of Real Estate Under Execution.

SHERIFF'S SALE NO. 9216—JOHN M. Fulweiler, plaintiff, vs. J. J. Rich, defendant.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, wherein John M. Fulweiler was plaintiff, and J. J. Rich was defendant, upon a judgment rendered the 19th day of December, A. D. 1888, for the sum of $91 49-100 dollars, in lawful money of the United States, besides costs and interest, I have this day levied upon all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant, J. J. Rich, of, in and to the following described real estate, to wit:

The certain tract or parcel of land formerly conveyed to said J. J. Rich by John Dollard of Los Nietos, same being the north half of the following described real estate, viz: Commencing at a point 80 links south 56° 40' east of a stake at the southeast corner of certain lands which were described as being occupied by one Truman at the time of said conveyance of said John Dollard to said J. J. Rich, said stake being described in said conveyance as the southwest corner of William Justice's land, and from said stake running with the southwest line of said Justice's south 56° 40' east (which line is also the northeast line of land surveyed by E. M. Morgan for D. W. Tuttle on March 14th and 15th, 1868,) 19.00 chains to a point which is the northeast corner of the tract of said Rich and of D. W. Tuttle and the southeast corner of the land of said Justice; thence at right angles south 31° 30' west 42 chains to a stake the southeast corner of D. W. Tuttle and of said tract; thence north 56° 40' west 20 chains 20 links to a point on Tuttle's southwest line; thence north 31° 30' east 42 chains to a point on Tuttle's north line, said line being also the southern line of said Truman; thence south 61° 10' east one chain more or less to point of beginning, all containing eighty-five and one-half acres, and having formed part of the Rancho Santa Gertrudes, it being the same land purchased by and conveyed to said John Dollard of Los Nietos by D. W. Tuttle, by deed dated June 21, 1870. The north one-half of above described land, containing forty-two and three-fourths acres, having been conveyed to J. J. Rich by John Dollard, by deed dated September 6, 1876, together with one-half of all the interest of said Dollard in the Arroyo irrigation ditch.

Public notice is hereby given that I will, on Saturday, the 2d day of February, A.D. 1889, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, in front of the courthouse door of the county of Los Angeles, on Spring street, sell at public auction, for cash in lawful money of the United States all the right title, claim and interest of said defendant, J. J. Rich, of, in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder.

Dated this 10th day of January, 1889.

Money, Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK Jan. 10.—Money on call easy at 2@3 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 5½@7.

Sterling exchange, dull but stronger at 4.85 for 60-day bills, 4.88½ for demand.

Government bonds, dull but firm.

State bonds were dull and steady.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The stock market is simply waiting upon the railroad conference. Meagerness of reports from that source was the reason of much disappointment to speculation. Gould stocks seemed to be the most prominent. The opening figures were generally slight fractions above those of last evening, and in the early trading the advancing tendency was quite pronounced, although, except in Western Union, no material progress was made. The market closed dull and steady at but slight changes from the opening.

The Westenholm IXL Pocket-knife

Is the best knife made. Get one from Harper & Reynolds Co., wholesale and retail hardware dealers, Nos. 48 and 50 N. Main street.

Largest stock of wood, iron and slate mantels, old English fireplaces, finest assortment of brass goods, art and floor tiles, at H. Bohrman's, 414 South Spring, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Crown flour makes whiter, sweeter and better bread than any other.

The St. Elmo Hotel.

First class; strictly European plan: Spanish and French restaurant attached; reasonable.

Just received, by R. W. Ellis & Co., fresh vaccine virus direct from the Chambersburg farm. 27 South Spring street. 16

Ask your grocer for Crown flour and take no other.

You will miss a rare treat if you should fail to see the beautiful show window of The Queen Shoe Store.

A trial will convince you that Crown flour is unequaled.

The youngest in the list, the foremost in the race—Crown flour.

To every purchaser to the amount of $2.50 and upward will be given one of The Queen's beautiful Christmas souvenirs.

Crown flour makes the finest breakfast rolls.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Jailer Darcy has fitted up his quarters at the jail very handsomely, and has evidently gone in to stay.

Charles H. Shinn of the Overland Monthly is in the city, accompanied by his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Shinn are guests of the Westminster.

John Haslet, from San José township, and S. C. Pettit, from the city, were yesterday committed to the County Jail on charges of petty larceny.

Constable Clements went north on the 10 o'clock train last night to bring back Udell, charged by his wife with bigamy, who is in jail at Sacramento. He will return tomorrow.

The lecture by ex-Gov. St. John, to take place at the Second Baptist Church, Hill and Third streets, has been "indefinitely postponed"—which is to say, it will not be delivered.

A plentiful supply of pure water was struck in the mountains back of the Soldiers' Home yesterday. This water will be piped to the Home and will be ample for all requirements.

The following passengers left on yesterday's 1:15 p.m. train for the north: C. Alberger, Mrs. High, C. T. Murphy, H. L. White, A. W. Barrett, L. Harris, J. C. Skiff, M. Wolf, James Irvine, William Sexton, Mrs. Gilmore, J. Fourth.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office, No. 6 Court street, for Mrs. Josephine Wight, J. C. Epperly, C. F. Ballenger, J. C. Jacques, J. P. Gonner, Charles Taylor, Nicholas de Lapez and Dr. Hoy.

Detective McCarthy last Wednesday arrested Thomas Wilson and James Devine on a charge of uttering counterfeit coin and bills. The prisoners are now in the custody of United States Marshal Risley awaiting examination on the charge.

Among the arrivals at the County Jail yesterday were six tramps who came to serve out terms of imprisonment. Among the number was one who turned out to be crazy, Alonzo Lapham, from San José township. Lapham will be kept apart for a day or two, and, if he does not improve, will have an examination as to his sanity.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following parties yesterday: W. W. Morgan of Pennsylvania, aged 23, and Rosa Gradias of California, aged 16; J. S. Scott of Maryland, aged 28, and Eliza Burton of Texas, aged 18; C. S. Hannum of New York, aged 32, and Veania Jones of New York, aged 27; Frank Moors of Germany, aged 28, and Hannah Fechter of New York, aged 25; Robert Courtwright of Ohio, aged 50, and Alvina Thompson of Indiana, aged 38.

By a mistake, the name of J. C. Glidden was mentioned among those appointed on the police force Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Glidden was appointed at the meeting of the commission, but, after adjournment, Chief Cooney and Mayor Bryson made the change, substituting T. J. Conley. At the meeting Mayor Bryson declined to vote, saying that he did not wish to be bothered, but afterward evidently changed his mind. It is probable that Glidden will be appointed as soon as there is a vacancy.

It was reported on the streets yesterday that a room in the New Denison Hotel, on Main street, near Winston, had been robbed Thursday night of $500 and a pair of opera glasses. At the police station the officers were very reticent and declined to give any information, but it was learned as a fact that such a robbery had been committed, and that the officers were working on the case. The thief will probably be arrested today, when the facts will come out.

The following arraignments took place in Department No. 1 of the Superior Court yesterday: Ah Jung, assault to murder; Herman Fletzer, forgery; William Wilson and W. M. Breckenridge, burglary; George Swipes, injuring jail; John Nichols, burglary; P. Merter, resisting officer; Thomas Gaskins, forgery; George Kirby, J. R. Germain, Bill Jones, Frank Cochrane, assault to murder, robbery, burglary, etc.; James St. Clair and John Bremont, grand larceny; Thomas Clark, burglary; D. Leiver, murder.

PERSONAL NEWS.

James McGuire of Boston, Mass., is at the Hollenbeck.

John E. Truslow of Santa Barbara is at the Nadeau.

R. Gird and wife of Chino ranch are at the Hollenbeck.

S. Harris of Portland, Or., is stopping at the Hollenbeck.

B. C. Truman of the Southern Pacific staff is at the Raymond.

George W. Skinner and wife of Denver, Colo., are at the Nadeau.

A. C. Stewart and wife and J. B. Lanch of San Francisco are at the Nadeau.

Mrs. P. Barlew, Miss Fanny M. Barlew and Frank A. Barlew of Duluth, Minn., are at the Nadeau.

W. A. Bissell, S. W. Cushman and Mrs. Dr. G. W. Leek of San Francisco are at the Hollenbeck.

Capt. A. W. Barrett left for San Francisco on the 1:30 train yesterday on a business trip. Mr. Barrett will be absent about ten days.

Miss Myra Parks, School Superintendent of Lassen county, is in the city visiting friends. She is well pleased with this part of the State and has made some investments.

C. D. Porter, accompanied by his brother, Dr. A. H. Porter, a prominent druggist of Spokane Falls, with his wife, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. O. H. Churchill of Figueroa street.

Hugh Wallace, known to publishers all over the United States, Canada and New Jersey, is again in Los Angeles, after an absence of three years. He notes with wonder and admiration the vast changes that have taken place in this city, and, indeed, in the whole southern country, since his last visit.

Charles W. Keene, an Oakland capitalist, and his sister, Mary S. Keene, who have been stopping at the Westminster for several days, return home today. Mr. Keene is an old resident of the State, having been a Californian since the days of '49, but had never before been further south than Santa Cruz. After a two weeks' sojourn at Coronado Beach and Los Angeles he is ready to take off his hat and make a low bow to Southern California. He expresses himself as both surprised and delighted with this city. "If I were not so firmly anchored in Oakland I should come down here to stay altogether," he remarked to a TIMES reporter. "Your climate here is vastly superior to that of the north, while the life and business activity of Los Angeles remind me of San Francisco. I shall come again."

Winter Excursions.

The liberal and flattering inducements now held out to the public in the shape of winter excursions north would be all very nice and acceptable were it not for the cold, damp and often foggy weather to be met with there. To avoid this serious trouble, go south and visit the Hotel del Coronado, where glorious sunshine and healthy sea breezes await you, to say nothing of the hearty welcome and generous hospitality all receive at that popular resort.

The Agency of the Hotel del Coronado,

Corner of Spring and Franklin streets, is a busy place these glorious winter days. They have many callers seeking information or examining the charts to select their rooms from. But the hotel is so spacious with its 750 apartments that all making application can depend upon securing comfortable sunny rooms in this the most commodious and charming winter resort on the Pacific Coast.

Rental Department.

Am now ready, under the terms of circular No. 1, Rental Agencies' Association, to take charge of the renting of houses leasing of stores or blocks, collecting rents, etc., having established in my offices a department for this purpose. I assure my patrons of prompt and faithful attention to their interests. Will advertise their wants and use every endeavor to secure reliable tenants. I respectfully solicit your patronage. Ben E. PEOPLE'S STORE.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11, 1889.

Inaugural Odd and End Sale.

The greatest sale ever inaugurated takes place today. We have been working on this sale for the past three days, and selected all the ends and odds of lines throughout the house. We were ourselves astonished in finding such a quantity; all styles and kinds of goods, such as you would hardly expect to find. We will mention a few, but cannot promise five minutes after our doors are open to show them; it is merely to give you an idea of what is on sale.

OUR WINDOW DISPLAYS.

Kid Gloves, 29c a Pair.

Odds and ends of kid gloves at 29c a pair; you will find among them 8-button length mousquetaire, Foster hook and button kid gloves, and a number of different makes, in plain or embroidered backs, in street or opera shades; our assortment is broken, and if we can fit you, they are the greatest bargains on earth; worth as high as $1.75.

Pillowcase Cotton, 10c a Yard.

In our odd and end sale the line to be closed out is one of the widest widths of bleached pillowcase cotton at 10c a yard—46 inches wide without dressing, and worth 20c.

SAY, STRANGER!

Do You Want a Home?

NO CASH PAYMENTS DOWN REQUIRED.

ANY INDUSTRIOUS MAN WHO WANTS TO MAKE HIMSELF A HOME where he can enjoy good health, drink pure mountain water, breathe pure air, shake off all his throat and lung troubles, asthma, etc., where he can raise the highest priced oranges, apricots, olives, strawberries, blackberries and raspberries raised in California, no fruit pests, frosts, fog or moisture, the terminus of a branch of the Santa Fe Railroad on the land, four trains daily and only 20 minutes' ride to the city of San Bernardino, had better call on W. P. McINTOSH, general agent for the sale of MENTONE lands. He offers to sell land in tracts to suit and give five years to pay for the same at 8 per cent interest. No cash payment required for one year from settlers. Non residents desirous of purchasing and improving will find an experienced man on the ground to plant and cultivate at a reasonable price until owners are prepared to occupy or sell. Settlers can have the use of adjacent lands free of charge, on which to raise grain, potatoes or other vegetables until trees are in bearing or grain lands sold.

Los Angeles city property sold, exchanged and rented. MONEY LOANED.

Lowe Gas and Electric Company.

LIGHT, HEAT, POWER.

GAS : FOR : FUEL.

This company is the only successful furnishers of gas for fuel purposes in this city, giving more heat for less money than has ever been supplied here before, for it is a fact well established by actual tests here that without our appliances and methods consumers cannot receive satisfaction in the use of gas for either culinary or heating purposes.

Our light is also the best in the world and worth double that of any other gaslight, while our family, hotel and restaurant cookers have no equal, of which a visit to our showrooms will convince you.

Ask for pamphlet, which will give you much valuable information.
